SHOOK UP THE FARMS

Tremendous Explosion of Hidden Nitroglycerin.

WOODS FIRE CAUSED IT TO IGNITE

It Was Left by Oil Well Shooters Who Found It Too Dangerous to Remove. Hunters Cause a Brush Fire—Livery Stable Burned—Child Instantly Killed. Other Ohio State News.

MARIETTA, O., Oct. 20.—During a small woods fire at St. Mary's, 10 miles above here on the Ohio, a tremendous explosion occurred, tearing a large hole in the ground and shaking up farm houses for some distance. Mr. Riggs' house was considerably damaged.

It was ascertained that in shooting oil wells some months ago, two cans of nitroglycerin were hidden in the woods, and not being wanted, were left there, rather than be carried away in their highly explosive conditions, caused by the contents being melted and mixed.

Hunters Blamed for Fires.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Oct. 20.—Hunters from this city set fire to some brush on the Hickman farm in St. Clair township, north of this city, yesterday. Much lumber and a number of fences were destroyed. A large force of men worked until midnight fighting the flames. The farmers are posting notices forbidding hunting, under penalty of prosecution.

Livery Stable Burned.

XENA, O., Oct. 20.—The livery stable of George Boyd at Cedarville was destroyed by fire. Loss, $1,000. There was intense excitement in the village, as 19 other buildings ignited from the livery stable fire, but the citizens succeeded in stopping the conflagration without the loss of any building entire except the livery stable.

Child Instantly Killed.

TIFFIN, O., Oct. 20.—While the 3-year-old daughter of Sylvester Kleinhenz, was playing in the streets last night in front of her home, she was knocked down by a passing wood wagon and her brains crushed out by the wheels. Life was extinct when the child was picked up.

Early Settler Dead.

DELPHOS, O., Oct. 20.—Henry J. Moening, who died here yesterday, aged 67 years, was born in Germany, and came here in 1844, helping to clear away the forests, where the business part of the town now stands. He has been prominent in political circles here.

An Explosion Followed.

MASSILLON, O., Oct. 20.—W. E. Lewis, engineer at Russell & Company's works, was burned about the hands, arms and face while cleaning out a boiler with crude oil. Lewis crawled back of the boiler with a torch, when an explosion followed.

Brakeman Sandbagged.

DELPHOS, O., Oct. 20.—Joseph Altemeir, a Clover Leaf brakeman, was held up and robbed of $19, which he had just received from the company, on his way home from work, in the heart of the city here. He was sandbagged and left unconscious.

Died in His Chair.

WOOSTER, O., Oct. 20.—Archibald H. Dice, merchant policeman, died suddenly in his chair yesterday. He was aged 55 years and had been in the employ of the city for the past 20 years as city marshal, police officer and merchant policeman.

Mill Stopped by Eels.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Oct. 20.—The water wheel at the Blakes mills was clogged up yesterday by a school of eels, which literally stopped the entire machinery of the mill. Over 100 pounds of eel meat was dislodged from the wheel.

Kicked in the Face.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS, O., Oct. 20.—Julius Molson was fatally kicked in the face by a horse. The animal's hoof struck Molson's eye and forehead and he fell unconscious.

Woman's Sudden Death.

DUNKIRK, O., Oct. 20.—Mrs. Mattie Friedley of this place fell in a paroxysm while eating and died yesterday morning. She was about 50 years of age.

MISSING INDIANA MAN.

He Disappears in Licking County, Ohio, and Foul Play Is Feared.

LAFORTE, Ind., Oct. 20.—Advices received at Ligonier, state that John Devault, a wealthy and prominent citizen of that city, has mysteriously disappeared from Johnstown, O., where he was to visit relatives. Devault gave evidence of suffering from mental aberration and it is feared he has committed suicide, while the theory of foul play is also advanced.

The Licking county authorities are aiding the Indiana officials in making a search for the missing man.

A dispatch has just been received from Toledo saying that a body answering Devault's description has been found dead in that city.

Drouth Broken in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 20.—Rain is reported from all sections of Kentucky. Farmers are overjoyed. Forest fires which raged in central and eastern Kentucky are being quenched.

ALASKA'S GOLD-BEARING TERRITORY.

It Is About Nine Hundred Miles Long and Two Hundred Miles Wide.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 20.—The steamer Bertha has arrived here from St. Michael's, Alaska, which place she left Oct. 5. The Bertha brings no later news than was brought down by the Danube, which left St. Michael's one day before the Bertha. Fourteen passengers came down on the Bertha. There was about $30,000 in gold, most of it being in the possession of Arthur M. Pope and Harry Wright.

The Bertha brought no late news from Dawson, her passengers coming from Milonok and Circle City. The steamer Cleveland was to leave St. Michael's two or three days after the Bertha left, and the Portland was to have sailed Oct. 15.

Isaac Dietrich, a mine owner and expert of San Francisco, was a passenger on the Bertha. He said: "I have made a hasty trip of observation of some of the gold sections of Alaska. I thought so favorably of the outlook that I got right into the harness and have four men at work. Although gold mining in Alaska is in its extreme infancy, yet I predict a great rush to certain parts of Alaska as there is now at Dawson. I do not think there will be such great strikes as there were at Dawson, but there will be occasionally something like $30 to $50 a day to the man. My friend, Captain Stanley, has enough ground in Bonanza creek to warrant the statement that he has as good as $3,000,000 in bank."

"Such big strikes as his are as hard to find as the big nuggets. Alaska has so much gold-bearing placer ground that there will be occasional finds of more or less larger amounts caused by concentration. The formations of the gold-bearing districts are just about like the Klondike, and the conditions are the same. The extent of the gold-bearing country is about 900 miles long, and nearly 200 miles wide. It seems to be the extension of the Rocky mountain belt. The conditions are so unfavorable that it will require many years to prospect this great country. At present the richest ground can only be worked, but as experiments are made the less-paying ground will be worked with profit. I am of the firm opinion that the rich placer fields of Alaska will also lead to the discovery of quartz veins carrying a far greater amount of gold than we hear about in California."

DEMISE OF A WEALTHY MERCHANT.
His Widow and Another Man Charged With Poisoning Him.

IRVINE, Ky., Oct. 20.—John Sams, aged 68, and a well known farmer and citizen of Estill county, died suddenly Monday at his home. He was one of the best known men in his neighborhood, and always stood high. He had for a long time conducted a country store with success and owned a fine farm.

Mr. Sams had been ill in recent months, his bad health continuing for some time, but he had recovered from that illness, it was thought. Though he was feeble, it was thought he was so much improved as to be out of danger.

Following the death, which was so generally mourned, came a sensational development in the case which was as unlooked for as the death and much more startling.

The surprising incident was the arrest of Zeke King and Mrs. Sams, the dead man's wife, on the astounding charge of having caused Sams' death by poisoning. They were brought here and lodged in jail. Both assert their innocence.

There is an indisposition to believe the charge against Mrs. Sams and Mr. King. The examining trial has been set for next Wednesday, when both sides will be represented by the best known lawyers at the local bar. The news of the arrest has caused the greatest surprise, as it has become known. King is one of the best known men in the county, and Mrs. Sams' father is wealthy.

Mockery at a Funeral.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The funeral of Edward Langtry, husband of Lily Langtry, the actress, who died in the asylum for the insane at Chester Friday night, took place yesterday. Mrs. Langtry sent a wreath tied with large silk ribbons of turquoise fawn, representing her racing colors.

Died of His Wound.

SOMERSET, Ky., Oct. 20.—Jerry Morris, who was shot in the neck last Saturday by Fountain Trewitt, is reported dead. The shooting occurred at Hickory Nut, near this place. Trewitt is at large, but it is thought his whereabouts are pretty well known.

Slowly Bleeding to Death.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 20.—During a violent fit of coughing Isaiah S. Dunning of Crofton burst a blood vessel in his throat, and is slowly bleeding to death from the rupture, the attending physicians having so far been unable to stop the flow of blood.

Shooting Caused by an Old Grudge.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 20.—At Junction City former Marshal W. S. Tuttle shot and instantly killed John Hamner in the store of the former. An old grudge was the cause.

Miners Get the Scale.

BROWNSTOWN, W. Va., Oct. 20.—The Brabbin Coal company signed the scale and the miners commenced work this morning. They are to receive 70 cents per ton.

The Dog Got Away.

RICHMOND, Ky., Oct. 20.—James McKinney, a Ruthton farmer, attempted to shoot a dog, but shot himself. He is in a precarious condition and may die.

RECORD BROKE AGAIN

Largest Number of New Cases of Yellow Fever.

SLIGHT DECREASE IN THE DEATHS.

Fifty-Three New Cases Reported and Four Deaths in New Orleans During the Past Twenty-Four Hours—A Better Report Comes From Mobile—Latest Reports From the Other Infected Places.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 20.—The past 24 hours has broken all records in new cases of yellow fever in this city. The deaths did not run up to an unusual mark, but there were enough of new cases and fatalities to disappoint those who believed the fever was on the wane. There were four deaths and 53 new cases; there have never heretofore been more than 49. Cases are being reported from all sections of the city.

There have been in this city up to the present time 921 cases. Of these 104 have died. The record is bad enough as it stands, but it is quite possible that cases are being hidden and as a matter of fact if they were reported the death rate would be less than it is now. This is the record of deaths and new cases:

DEATHS.

Elma Stockham.
Anita Vickor.
Ignazia Enrasato.
Antonio Ramos.

NEW CASES.

Ruby Phelps. — Barnes, Albert Hiller. — Hiller, Miss Ruth Kelly, Lauretta Williams, Miss Dora Burgess, Miss Willie Burgess, Miss Fannie Burgess, Nellie Roddy, Marie Cabors, C. M. Buckingham, Dr. C. J. Miller, Antonio Ramos, Miss Catherine Coppman, Iguzza Buransato, Mrs. Monk Snackenburg, Mamie Riley, — Wright, Raphael Lamantia, Delia Moses, Walter Durand, Mancuso, Mandola, William Ross, Chrichioi Nicholi, Mrs. Duprey, Mrs. Emma Ross, Jessie Hyatt, Adolph Hyatt, L. Seddigo, Annie Killila, Thomas J. Johnson, Miss Morgan, Amelia Wolfson, David G. Baldwin, Hanna Bailey, Charles Staudbridge, W. E. Hall, Will Lakins, Lillian Murray, Mary Lacaze, H. Hughes, Mrs. Marion Smith, Kate Maloney, Oswald Deblano, Dennis Deblano, Oscar Mag, George McConnell, J. P. McDonald, Mrs. Dupre, Elma Stockham, Estelle Frochoux.

Two of the deaths were among cases that were reported but a few minutes before the fatalities became known.

Barring the fact that the cases have been numerous there is little of interest in the general situation locally. The weather is warm and sultry and business is depressed.

The report from Nitta Ynma is that there are no new cases there and all the sick are doing well.

At Edwards four new cases of yellow fever are reported. All the patients are getting along very well.

Encouraging Report From Mobile.

MOBILE, Oct. 20.—The sixth week of the fever begins with five new cases, no deaths and 11 recoveries. The new cases are: Raymon Villaneva, J. F. Holberg, Norman Forest, Nellie Sullivan and J. J. Bromley. The temperature has steadily fallen and the weather is chilly and fires are a comfort. The sky has been overcast for 50 hours and there has been slight rain.

Little Town Depopulated.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 20.—The little town of Flomation is depopulated. There were about 200 inhabitants, 30 of whom have taken some form of fever. The exodus is so complete that only the nurses and the sick remain.

WOUNDED CUBANS COME TO US.

One of the Brave Trio Is a Boy Lieutenant of Fourteen.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Colonels Baldomero Acosta and Andres Hernandez and Lieutenant Alberto Guzman of the Cuban army have arrived here from Havana. They came to this country for surgical treatment. Colonel Acosta has four troublesome wounds which compelled him to absent himself from the field pending treatment. Colonel Hernandez was pierced through the lungs, abdomen and legs by Mauser bullets. Both men were with General Antonio Maceo when he was killed. Only a short time ago they led a raid against the city of Marianao, six miles from Havana.

First Lieutenant Guzman, who acted as Colonel Acosta's aid during the last two years, is only 14 years of age. He accompanied General Maceo in his famous march from Matanzas to Mantua, Pinar del Rio province, and was wounded twice while charging by the side of Colonel Acosta, when the latter drove away from the field the Spanish guerrillas, who were attempting to carry away the dead body of General Maceo.

Attempted Train Wrecking.

PRINCETON, Ind., Oct. 20.—Train wreckers attempted to ditch the fast Chicago and Nashville limited passenger train on the Evansville and Terre Haute railway, near Haubstadt, this county, shortly after midnight. The train was running 50 miles an hour, but Engineer Hoffman discovered a cross tie laid across the rails, and applied the brakes so vigorously that while the trucks mounted the tie the engine did not leave the track.

Fell From a Tree.

KENDALLVILLE, Ind., Oct. 20.—John Daniels, living four miles west of this city, was instantly killed by falling from a tree, breaking his neck.

COMING HOME TO VOTE.

Details of President McKinley's Trip to the West.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Details for the president's western trip at election time have been completed. The president, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley and Secretary Porter, will leave Washington Friday afternoon, the 29th, over the Pennsylvania road. At Cincinnati he will be the guest of Mr. J. G. Schmidlapp, a long time intimate personal friend. On the afternoon of Saturday there will be an informal reception at the chamber of commerce. The president will not speak then, but will deliver a short address at the banquet given him by the Cincinnati Commercial club Saturday evening.

Monday morning the president will leave Cincinnati for Canton, remaining there until after the election, and will receive the election returns in Canton.

The party will take the train Wednesday morning and arrive in Pittsburgh before noon. While in Pittsburgh the president will be entertained by Mr. W. N. Frew, president of the Carnegie Library association, and Mr. Robert Pitcairn, who is also connected with the library. In the afternoon there will be the formal exercises at the library, and the president will make a short address. In the evening he will attend a symphony concert at the library and at its conclusion will start for Washington, arriving Thursday morning, Nov. 4.

REGULATORS REORGANIZED.

A Once Famous Band Proposes to Suppress Crime.

LIGONIER, Ind., Oct. 20.—A pair of shoes were found last night which were supposed to belong to one of the murderers of Adam Huffman. Many detectives are at the scene of the murder and it is thought that in time the guilty men will be apprehended. Captain Smith, United States marshal, is also working on the case.

Harry Martin and George Reed, two young men, are being held at Auburn. It being alleged that they tortured and robbed Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hartman. The sentiment against them is strong.

Huffman had a premonition of his fate, as he often said that he would be murdered for his money.

The one-time famous Noble county regulators will reorganize to suppress crime, which is fast terrorizing these parts.

Nearly Two Hundred Lives Lost.

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—Three additional survivors of the wreck of the coasting steamer Triton, which went ashore before the wreck of the schooner, on the north coast of the province of Pinar del Rio, on Saturday morning last, have arrived here. The scene among the men, women and children when the steamer went ashore, the survivors state, was terrible. When the Triton foundered there were 230 persons aboard her, passengers and crew, and so far only 49 of this number have been heard from.

Two Victims of Wood Alcohol.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Oct. 20.—The coroner's inquest over the remains of Carl Parker and Oscar Galloway, who died at Cicero after drinking wood alcohol, shows that they purchased the alcohol from the Indianapolis Drug company, and, after weakening it with water, drank the stuff. They had been drinking to excess. The prosecutor has caused a warrant to issue for M. W. Irwin, representing the drug company, for selling intoxicants in less quantities than a quart.

Supposition and Reality.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Oct. 20.—The will of the late Albert Hankins, whose tragic death occurred in Chicago some weeks ago, has been filed for probate in the Porter circuit court. Mrs. Hankins is his sole heir. She made affidavit that the estate was worth only $100 and gave bonds for $200 as administratrix. The estate was supposed to be worth at least $160,000.

Extensive Marsh Fire.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Oct. 20.—The Shultz marsh, south of town, caught fire Saturday night and is still burning. It has swept over several hundred acres of land, burning the residence and barn of C. Unger, together with contents, two county bridges and several miles of fences and a great deal of hay. The loss is estimated at $1,000 to $6,000.

Roasted to Death.

CORYDON, Ind., Oct. 20.—Hays J. McCallen, living alone in a log cabin in Morgan township, was fatally burned while sleeping in front of his fireplace. He lay for seven days unable to assist himself, and died shortly after neighbors came to his relief.

Killed by a Passing Buggy.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 20.—Herman Simon, 85 years old, last evening, while crossing a street, was struck by a passing buggy, receiving injuries soon terminating in death. Three of his sons are business men here.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 20.—The will of the late Peter E. Studebaker is now on record in the county clerk's office. By its terms nearly $1,000,000 of personal property and real estate is distributed among the heirs. Nothing was left to charity.

AWAITING A VERDICT

Luetgert's Fate Still in the Hands of the Jury.

THEY WILL LIKELY DISAGREE

Nine Stand For Conviction and Three For Acquittal—The Prisoner Consistent That He Will Not Be Convicted—Bribes Offered the Foreman of the Jury Through Two Letters—A Night of Suspense.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Another night of suspense was passed by the defendant in the Luetgert case. At 9 o'clock last night the jury had gone to bed on cots which were placed in the courtroom, and it was announced by Judge Tuthill that, even though by one chance in a million, the jurors should wake up and agree upon a verdict, there would be no announcement, and the courtroom would under no circumstances be opened until the regular hours of convening.

A few minutes before 8 o'clock, Judge Tuthill appeared at the criminal court building and being admitted alone by the bailiffs at the entrance, he passed quickly upstairs, giving positive orders that nobody should be admitted to the building under any circumstances. Within a few minutes after he had issued these instructions Attorney Phalen, the junior counsel for the defense, put in an appearance and demanded admission. He was promptly refused and it took all his powers of persuasion and argument to get past the guard at the door.

Judge Tuthill went directly to the courtroom, where he was told by the bailiffs in charge of the jury several of the jurors were almost exhausted by the ordeal to which they had been subjected during the last 30 hours, and that if they were not allowed some rest it would certainly result in some of them becoming ill. The jury also sent word that there was no immediate prospect of an agreement, and under the circumstances the judge gave orders that they be permitted to drop the case and go to sleep. The cots were quickly dragged into the courtroom, and within a few minutes every juror was stretched out at full length and all consideration of the case was off until they should wake in the morning.

There were rumors of all kinds afloat during the evening, all of them being to the effect that the friends of Luetgert on the jury were weakening. It was known during the day that the vote stood eight to four, and last night the rumors were that it was 10 for the death penalty and two for acquittal. A later story was that it stood 11 for hanging and one for acquittal. Jnror Harley is admitted to be the stout friend of Luetgert on the jury and it is he who is leading the fight for an acquittal.

Just before retiring for the night the jury took another ballot, the vote standing nine for conviction and three for acquittal. The four jurors who have been standing out for acquittal are Behmiller, Barber, Holabird and Harley. The latter two are still for acquittal, but either Behmiller or Barber has come over to the state.

There is much feeling against Harley among the jurors who favor the death penalty. They say he will not argue the case in any way, but sticks solidly for Luetgert.

Over in the jail Luetgert was during the evening anxiously awaiting word from the juryroom. He tried as usual to keep up an appearance of indifference, and, as usual, made a failure of it.

"If they don't agree," he said, "I get bail and I will be out of this. I can give bail for a million if they want that much. My wife is living somewhere, but I admit she is having a lot of fun with me at present. There is one thing sure," the prisoner said with great positiveness, "there will be no conviction in this case. It will either be an acquittal or a disagreement."

Asked where he obtained his information, he smiled and said: "Oh, I know, you go long. I won't be convicted though, you can bet on that."

Two letters addressed to the foreman of the Luetgert jury have been received by Judge Tuthill, offering bribes aggregating $1,600 for an acquittal or a disagreement. All mail for the jurors has, since the opening of the trial, been opened by the judge.

State's Attorney Deneen thinks the letters are a hoax, but Captain Schaeck thinks them genuine.

HAPPENINGS IN HAWAII.

The Steamer Belgic Reaches San Francisco From Yokohama via Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—The steamer Belgic, which arrived from Yokohama via Honolulu, shortly after midnight, two days ahead of schedule time, brought the following advices from Honolulu dated Oct. 12:

Japanese Minister Shimamura called at the foreign office yesterday and handed Minister Cooper a document bearing on the recent immigration muddle. It contained the points of the dispute and a draft of a treaty for arbitrating the same.

It is accepted as a fact that the Hawaiian government will not accept the points made by Japan or sign the treaty. The Japanese press seems to take the same view of the case.

CLINTON, Ind., Oct. 20.—Two fully-developed cases of diphtheria have appeared in this city, and the affected houses have been quarantined. Another outbreak of the epidemic, which caused such alarm last year, is feared.

INDICATIONS.—Partly cloudy weather, probably light local showers; light to fresh southeasterly winds, shifting to southwesterly.

He's a mighty puny Democrat who changes his politics to suit some Republican.

Let every Democrat do just what the Republicans don't want him to do, vote the Democratic ticket next Tuesday week.

There's no reason why the Democratic vote of the county should not be delivered solidly for the Democratic ticket in November.

There's no sentiment in politics, and any Democrat allowing himself to indulge in such foolish whims does away with his politics.

Ohio Republicans are evidently very uneasy over the revolt in the ranks of the colored brother. They have ex-Senator Blanch K. Bruce, of Mississippi, making speeches to the negro voters.

The hope of the republic lies not in Mark Hanna, nor in Wall street, nor yet in Lombard street, which crowds are figuring for themselves alone, but in the honest Democracy of the land.

A BROTHER of Congressman Pugh is the Democratic nominee for County Judge in Lewis and it is thought he will win. Congressman Pugh, though a bitter Republican, is supporting him. It is also thought Mr. R. D. Wilson's chances are very good for defeating Lykins, Republican, for Representative.

BR'ER DAVIS says the city ballot in 1893 was about 6x18 inches in size. He doesn't know half as much about this matter as he thinks he does. We happen to have a sample of the ballot for this city that year, and if he will come down and measure it he will find it 13½x17 inches in size.

At New York Saturday cotton reached the lowest prices in forty years, with the exception of 1894. The market for futures was demoralized at the opening, owing to an unexpectedly weak Liverpool market. The January future sold down to a little over 6 cents a pound. Now if the Republicans put the price of wheat up they ought certainly be made to answer for the low price of cotton.

SPEAKING of the removal of Judge A. B. Montgomery from the Dawes Commission by President McKinley, the Louisville Dispatch very pertinently remarks:

If Judge Montgomery had been possessed of a smaller appetite for office and a larger stock of patriotism, he would have still enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens in Kentucky; but when he changed his views of the currency question for the sake of position and pay he fell to rise no more. His case illustrates the fact that the Republicans have no respect for those who betray principles to aid them, after they have served the immediate end in view. Political treason, like any other form of treason, proves unprofitable in the end.

The 1894 ballot was printed on a sheet 8x18 inches. It contained four columns of names—candidates for Congress, Appellate Judge, the full county ticket and there were eighteen candidates for Magistrate and twenty-four for Constable in the eight districts.—Public Ledger.

For one who has been in the printing business as long as Br'er Davis such ignorance as he exhibits in the above is inexcusable. The 1894 ballot had four columns of names, and yet he says it was only 8 inches wide. The "four columns of names" take up the 8 inches and then where does the stub required by law come in? And we presume no margin was necessary. The 1894 ballot was just about the same size as the 1893 ballot in this city, 13½x17 inches, and it required about the same amount of work, and the cost would of course be about the same.

Foot Ball Meeting To-night.

Another meeting of those interested in organizing a foot ball team will be held to-night at 7 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. parlors.

The committee recently appointed will report progress. All are urged to be on hand. A cordial invitation to everybody interested in this great sport.

—Miss Anna Coughlin and Mr. John Cook left Tuesday evening for Cincinnati to attend the marriage of Miss Josie McCormack, of Walnut Hills, and Mr. Tim Murphy, of Chillicothe.

GEORGE M. PULLMAN DEAD.

The Millionaire Palace Car Magnate Succumbs to Heart Failure Yesterday Morning.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—George M. Pullman, the millionaire palace car magnate and founder of the town of Pullman, Ill., was taken with an attack of heart disease shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and a few minutes thereafter he was a corpse.

GEORGE PULLMAN.

Mr. Pullman retired to his room Monday evening as usual, not complaining of any ailment.

Shortly before 5 o'clock Rev. M. Eaton of New York, who has been a guest at the Pullman mansion for several days, was aroused by groans coming from his host's room. Hastily entering, he found Mr. Pullman clutching the left side of his breast and gasping for breath.

"I have a frightful pain at my heart, Doctor," he said between gasps, "call a physician."

Dr. Frank Billings was hastily summoned, but before he had arrived the multi-millionaire was dead.

Mr. Pullman attended to business at his downtown office as usual Monday, and after eating a hearty dinner he retired shortly after 9 o'clock.

Apparently he was in perfect health. Dr. Billings said the sudden attack had doubtless been superinduced by the warm weather of last week.

Mrs. Pullman, who is in New York city, was at once notified of her husband's death, as was also their daughter, Mrs. Carolan, who lives in San Francisco.

George M. Pullman, Jr., and Mrs. Lowden, the youngest daughter, were with their father when he died.

Further than a slight indisposition, caused by extreme weather at various times, Mr. Pullman had been perfectly well for several months past. Sickness has not kept him away from his office a day in five years, and he never complained of heart trouble. On Saturday, Oct. 9, he returned with his family from his summer home in Elberon, N. J., and presided at the annual meeting of the company, Oct. 14. Even at that time the doctors spoke of Mr. Pullman's robust appearance, the vacation at Elberon seemingly having greatly benefited him.

George Mortimer Pullman was born in Chautauqua county, N. Y., March 3, 1831. At 14 he began life as a clerk in a country store. Later associating himself with an older brother in the cabinet making business at Albion. He came to Chicago in 1859, and at first engaged in the business of raising building, elevating entire blocks a number of feet to bring them up to new street grades. While riding in an old-fashioned sleeping car from Buffalo to Westwood, N. Y., it occurred to him there was a field for building comfortable sleeping coaches.

From 1859 to 1863 he made a series of experiments on the Chicago and Alton and Galena roads. From these experiments he worked out detailed plans. A work shop was rented, skilled mechanics employed and Mr. Pullman threw himself into the task with the ardor of a man who moves from settled convictions. Although without mechanical training himself, he personally directed the work of others in all the minor details of putting the ideas he had originated into material form. The first car, the "Pioneer," was completed early in 1865 and immediately took rank as the most perfect railway vehicle the world had ever seen. This was the beginning of the Pullman system, which has grown to the present enormous proportion.

George M. Pullman came to Chicago in 1859. He at once took a prominent place in business circles. In 1860, owing to the growing demands of his manufacturing interests, he put into execution a pet theory for the establishment of a "model town," as a home for his carworks and the thousands of employees. A site was selected on the shores of Lake Calumet, 12 miles south of Chicago. Mr. Pullman devoted his personal attention to the erection of the little city, and succeeded even beyond his own expectations in making it a model town. Pullman now has a population of 11,000.

Mr. Pullman's wealth is variously estimated at from $12,000,000 to $30,000,000. His financial interests were confined to a few corporations, the bulk of the holdings being stock in the Pullman Palace Car company, of which he owned about one-fifth. Some stock was also held in Diamond Match and New York Biscuit. These securities were somewhat affected by the news of Mr. Pullman's death, but the declines were quickly recovered.

Mr. Pullman was married in 1867 to Miss Hattie Sanger of Chicago. Four children are living—George, Sanger, Harriet and Florence. The latter was married to Frank O. Lowden of this city two years ago.

MR. W. H. WADSWORTH was in Frankfort Tuesday before the Railroad Commissioners to present the C. and O.'s protest against the proposed assessment this year.

MR. CHARLES H. LARUE, of Shawhan, has been a terrible sufferer with bone-felon for some weeks, and it was thought he would lose the bone of the finger affected.

THE "Negro Protective Party" of Jessamine has a full ticket in the field for county officers. The picture of Abe Lincoln will be the party device. This is the only independent negro ticket in Kentucky.

THE directors of the Black Diamond Railroad met at Dover Tuesday. The management at this meeting proposed to start the bridge engineers to work in a very few days to locate the bridge at that point.

MISS ALICE PARKER DILLON, of East Orange, New Jersey, was married October 12th to Grafton Bowly Wigram. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Julia Parker, and has relatives in this county.

RELIABLE goods and fair dealing will always win. Ballenger handles the best to be had in the jewelry line, and you will find his prices are right. Call and inspect his stock of elegant novelties, watches and silverware.

VICTOR HERBERT's great band has just closed a six weeks engagement at St. Louis. The program for the concert here next Tuesday afternoon is a brilliant one, and will certainly attract every music-lover in Maysville and surrounding country.

DEPUTY U. S. MARSHAL HOPKINS has been removed from office by Judge Barr, of the U. S. District Court at Louisville. Not long after he was appointed by Dr. James, Hopkins took a lot of prisoners to Louisville, and failed to confine them in jail. He pleaded ignorance of the law, but that didn't go with Judge Barr.

MR. HENRY ORT has disposed of his furniture business to Mr. John I. Winter, of Augusta. Mr. Ort has been identified with this line of trade in Maysville for thirty years, and in that time has gained a wide list of friends throughout all this section. He will shortly engage in the coal business. In addition to purchasing Mr. Ort's furniture business, Mr. Winter has rented the latter's handsome building on East Second and will continue the business at this old and well known stand. Mr. Winter is one of Augusta's leading citizens and most progressive and wide awake merchants.

ANDREW ROEHL, one of the men implicated in the assault made on the person of Mrs. Thomas Gleason at Newport, was released from jail Monday under $2,000 bond. His brother and sister are sureties. Mrs. George Greer, wife of another one of the accused men, visited Commonwealth Attorney Lockhardt's office Monday morning and implored Mr. Lockhardt to save her husband. A year ago Greer was arrested on a charge of theft, and his wife's tears saved him then, but it is not thought that the game will work this time. Attorney Lockhardt told the woman that he would be compelled to do his duty in this matter.

Friday's Cash Sale!

TABLE CLOTHS.—Double Damask, made in Ireland, six beautiful patterns—daisy, forget-me-not, blackberry, wild rose, holly, shamrock, fern. There was good fortune in the find, for the goods are a third cheaper than even we can sell them regularly. The tariff fence bars out a repetition of the bargain. Each cloth is beautifully bordered and is full bleached with a satin finish. Pure linen, no cotton admixtures, no tow, no trash; and the fairest of fair prices to pay. This is the kind of linen selling we delight in. It broadens and strengthens the linen reputation of our store. It's an instance of the rightness of things. But the rightest rightness is in the price—Two yards, $1.25; two and a half yards, $2.00; three yards, $2.50.

DRESS PATTERNS.—Twenty styles, all wool foreign Novelty Goods, new this season, good styles, good quality, chic and charming. No hap-hazard selection brought them here. Rigid scrutiny rejected everything that was not choicest of the choice. Some plain goods in the lot. Patterns of eight yards, $1.95. Every woman can afford a new gown at such a price.

VELVETS.—Full rich colorings in an even, heavy pile make their beauty—blue, brown, red, green. The woman who makes every quarter count in buying can appreciate what it is to get silk velvet twenty inches wide for 48c. a yard.

GIGANTIC STEAL.

Will the President Carry Out Hannah's Bargain?

[New York World.]

The World has shown that the arrangements made for the foreclosure sale of the Union Pacific Railroad is a gigantic steal.

The thing has been purposely so manipulated that a syndicate shall cheat the Government out of $20,000,000, while making an enormous profit for itself.

Why should the President permit this robbery?

He can stop it. He can insist that a fair opportunity shall be given to others bidders, who stand ready to pay the whole of the Government's claim, instead of paying $33,000,000 in satisfaction of a debt of $53,000,000.

He can save the Nation from this swindle, and now that his own campaign is shown to have been tainted with a plot for carrying through this outrageous wrong his self-respect should compel him to interfere. His interference is all that is necessary to save $20,000,000 to the Government, which must otherwise go to the robbers.

Will Mr. McKinley stop this gigantic steal?

RAP FOR "PIE HUNTERS."

Rumor That the Civil Service Commissioners Will be Sustained by the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—It is reported about the Treasury Department this afternoon that the Attorney General will sustain the Civil Service Commissioners in every point of the contention between the Collectors of Internal Revenue and their deputies.

If the Commissioners are upheld every Deputy Collector who was summarily dismissed without cause will be ordered reinstated by the order of the Secretary of the Treasury.

If this rumor should prove true it can then be accepted as certain that the claim of Mr. Woods, of Louisville, for reinstatement in his old position as Superintendent of Mails, which has been taken up by the Civil Service Commission, will also be maintained.

It is a well recognized fact that Kentucky Republicans have been making a violent war upon the principles of civil service reform, counting upon the support of the President. The indications are that these Republicans will be turned down, and the President will insist that his appointees obey strictly his executive orders.

Hick's Predictions.

In his forecasts for this month Prof. Irl Hick's says:

From about the 25th to 29th of October we predict will fall the most general and heavy disturbances of the month. This period will be intensified by a Mercury disturbance, with moon at new, perigee and greatest declination south. A very marked low barometer will move out of the west early in the period, causing warm easterly and southerly winds. Heavy storms of rain and wind, attended by lightning and thunder to the south will visit many sections within sixty hours of 6 o'clock p. m. on the 26th. No one need be surprised to find these storms turning to sleet and snow in the northern parts of the country, and it will be wise to anticipate a general cold wave, followed by cold frosty nights, even into the South, during the closing days of October. All will understand, of course, that we mean "a cold wave" for this time of year, not such a one as would be expected after the winter has fully come. We predict that heavy northwesterly storms will endanger shipping on our great northern lakes, and perhaps along the north Atlantic, during the last storm period in October, and that northwestern extremes will have a touch of winter before the end of the month.

Free of Charge to Sufferers.

Cut this out and take it to your druggist and get a sample bottle free of Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, coughs and colds. They do not ask you to buy before trying. This will show you the great merits of this truly wonderful remedy, and show you what can be accomplished by the regular size bottle. This is no experiment, and would be disastrous to the proprietors, did they not know it would invariably cure. It is guaranteed. Trial bottle free at J. J. Wood's drug store. Regular size, 50 cents and $1.00.

Cut glass, sterling goods, bronzes, lamps, onyx top tables, clocks, toilet sets all go to make nice bridal presents. Murphy, the jeweler, is showing nice goods in this line.

STATE SENATOR HENRY L. MARTIN, National Democrat of the Nicholasville district, refuses to allow his name to go under the log cabin on the official ballot. He was endorsed by the Republicans.

CIRCUIT JUDGE PARKER, of Lexington, refused to grant the mandamus to compel the registration officers to place the names of 120 odd colored voters upon the registration books, holding that the action of the officers was discretionary, and could not be controlled by a higher court. The cases will go to the Court of Appeals.

CAPTAIN O. M. PHISTER has been appointed as Maysville's representative on the Committee on Ways and Means, of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association. This committee will have for its duties the securing of members and funds for the association that is doing so much for the good of the Ohio Valley, and to the end that this may be done the more thoroughly the committee is made up of one member from each city and town on the river, with Captain J. D. Parker, of Cincinnati, Treasurer of the association, as Chairman.

Money For Missions.
New York, Oct. 18.—When it comes to collecting money for foreign missions, the Rev. A. B. Simpson, of the Christian Alliance, is without a peer. His exhortations, accompanied by lively music and the singing of gospel hymns, caused his congregation to reach right down into their pockets. He stood on the stage of the American Theater before a big audience yesterday morning, and pleaded for donations in behalf of 300 missionaries in the uttermost parts of the earth, and when the last donation was in he announced that he had raised $78,000.
Three male devotees gave $10,000 each, one subscribed $5,000, and there were several pledged gifts of $2,500. A Jerseyman contributed his farm, a New Yorker a part of his library, a father his dead son's bank with $10 in it, a woman worshipper her diamond ring.

BY ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Friday at noon Mr. Gibson handed us the following telegram:

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 15.
Hechinger & Co., Maysville, Ky.: Make cash offer on what we have left of such styles as you bought early this season.
BLANK & CO.

At the request of the house, one of the largest in Cincinnati, —we omit the name—Mr. Gibson has the original telegram— we wired back:

Our Mr. D. Hechinger will come down on the 3:25 train.

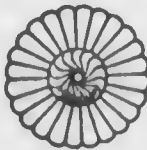

He came, saw and conquered.

We discovered that the house that owned the goods were anxious to realize on them. By electric light, inside of ninety minutes, we made the purchase of our business career. The goods are now in transit and will be on our counters Wednesday morning.

They were bought for Cash.

They will be sold for Cash.

The prices will be a revelation to bargain-seekers. See window display Wednesday morning. We will then tell you more about these great bargains.

THOS. J. CHENOWETH, P. M.

It has been held that consumption is hereditary, and the fact that one person of a family had died with consumption was considered a sure sign that others of that family could not escape it. This is partly true and partly untrue. A man with weak lungs is likely to transmit that weakness to his children. But there is no reason in the world why the weakness should be allowed to develop. Keep the lungs full of rich, red, wholesome blood, and the weakness will disappear. Decaying tissues will be thrown off, and new material will be added until the lungs are well and perfectly strong again. This is the thing that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does. This is what makes it cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption where it is taken according to directions. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be in the body and forces them out of the system. It supplies the blood with rich, life-giving properties. It makes the appetite good, digestion perfect. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

Another Week of Heavy Sales—Prices Have Been Well Sustained—First New Hoghead.

[Furnished by Glover & Durrett, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.]

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 3,996 hhd. with receipts for the same period 1,312 hhd. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 140,412 hhd. Sales of the crop of 1896 on our market to this date amount to 122,099 hhd.

We have had another week of heavy sales. Notwithstanding this fact, prices for burley tobacco have been well sustained at about the values that were current previous week. The first new hhd. of the season was sold last week. It was a hhd. of burley prunings and brought $6.70 per hundred. It was very common.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco (1896) crop:

Trash (dark or damaged).....$ 2 50 @ 4 00
Common color trash..... 4 00 @ 6 00
Medium to good color trash..... 6 00 @ 10 00

WEYLER'S LAST OFFICIAL ACT.

Trying to Make Some Attonement by Releasing Prisoners.

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—General Weyler has ordered the release from the Isle of Pines, the Spanish settlement off the coast of Cuba, of 11 prisoners who were, it was alleged, concerned in the uprising which resulted in the imprisonment of Senorita Evangelina Cosio y Cisneros, who recently escaped from the Casa recogidas in this city, and who is now in New York.

The release of Abram Sosa, Juan Esposito Torres, Jose Bestard Godoy and 17 other political prisoners has also been ordered by General Weyler.

The Spanish general, Jimenez Castellanos, accompanied by his son, Lieutenant Adolfo Castellanos, Captain Pedro Aguilar, his aides-de-camp, 29 other officers and 70 sick soldiers, has arrived here from Puerto Principe.

Quart Shop Dynamited.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Oct. 20.—The quart shop of Pat Murphy at Greenwood, this county, was blown up with dynamite about 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning by a posse of citizens. Murphy and his bartender, John Devers, were sleeping in the rear of the building and were awakened by the first explosion, a light one, and escaped a minute before the second explosion, which did the damage. The town has been without a saloon for four years.

Price of a Stolen Kiss.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 20.—Judge Twoby of the municipal court fixed the official price of stolen kisses in St. Paul at $25. Harry McIntire was arrested at the instigation of Miss Augusta Keompet, pleaded guilty of stealing the kiss, a technical assault, and was fined.

RICHMOND, Ky., Oct. 20.—Water is so scarce in this section that washer women are compelled to pay 15 cents per barrel for it. They have raised the price of washing.

FIRE INSURANCE.—Pickett & Respass, successors to Duley & Baldwin.

The official ballot at Louisville this year is 62 inches wide and 63 inches long. There is no press in Louisville large enough to print it.

The Tempering of Springs.

It is a nice job to temper a steel spring properly. Like many other things, the preparatory work should be well done, or the tempering proper will never be a success. The forge work should be done with a rather low temperature and gentle taps. Smiths are beginning to understand that very many bits of forging have the life pounded out of them by heavy and continuous beating. Light taps smooth the surface and create what is equivalent to a cuticle over the metal. This should be carefully preserved. Light hammering consolidates the particles of steel and toughens the forging. It is said that continuous, steady and light blows with a hammer will magnetize steel. It seems to put life into it. If it is necessary to grind a spring, do it at the outset and before much of the hammering is done. Do not put it on an emery wheel. It breaks the cuticle and destroys the integrity of the metal. The hardening may be done by heating a large piece of iron to a red heat, then putting the spring on the iron until it is heated through.

Another way is to hold the spring over a bright fire until it is sufficiently hot. It should be kept some distance from the fire, so as not to heat too quickly. When it is of a light red and all of a color, plunge it into cool water. Do not use ice water, as is so often suggested. Be careful in putting in the spring that the sudden cooling of one side does not draw it out of shape. If it is put in slowly, it is warped by the sudden cooling of one portion. When fully tempered, polish the spring with emery cloth until it is thoroughly clean and bright. Saturate a piece of paper with oil, light it and allow the smoke to collect on the spring until it is entirely coated with the black. Then heat it over the forge fire very slowly. Do not let one part burn off clean while the other is still black, but let it disappear all over the spring at the same time if possible. The perfection of temper comes from slow and careful handling and the utmost deliberation in heating and hammering.—New York Ledger.

She Made Sure.

It was a bank near the suburbs of Brooklyn in which a little girl, not more than 8 years old, made her appearance the other day, asking if she might see its workings. A polite little girl was not to be refused, and she was taken inside and shown the various departments of the institution. But that was not where the money was kept; could she see where the money was kept? Certainly, and she was taken to see the vaults. Still there was no money to be seen, and she was not satisfied. Could she see the money? Certainly, if that was what she wished, and the vault doors were thrown open, and, with a sigh of satisfaction, the little girl saw some of the money in which she was interested. "Do you think burglars could get in here?" she asked finally. "Certainly not," replied the bank official who had been acting as conductor. "It would be very difficult for burglars to get into the bank, and they could not get into the vaults. But now," he continued, "you have asked me a great many questions, little girl, and I should like to know why you are so much interested in this bank."

"Well," said the little girl confidentially, "my papa put $5 in this bank for me the other day, and I wanted to be sure that no burglars could get in and get it."—New York Times.

An Old Fashioned Journalist.

Harmon D. Wilson, who learned his letters from the Troy Chief, has written a two column article on Sol Miller for the Atchison Globe, in which he relates many interesting little reminiscences of the old fellow. Sol would never trust anybody else to make up the forms of his paper, and he never permitted anybody under any circumstances to touch the forms which contained the mailing list. For 40 years he put on an old apron each week and worked over the imposing stones on issue day.

"When The Chief went to press," says Mr. Wilson, "the whistle was blown. That was the signal for all who wished to come and get their papers. Most of those in hearing came. As they took their papers from a folded pile which always stood in a certain place, they wrote their names on a sheet hung there for that purpose."—Kansas City Journal.

Young Girl Missing.

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 20.—Effie Stephens, aged 14 years, is missing from her home, on Russell street, central Covington, and the assistance of the Covington police has been asked to try to locate her. Her parents, it is alleged, corrected her for some misdemeanor on Sunday, and in the evening she disappeared and has not been heard from since.

Killed His Brother.

OWENTON, Ky., Oct. 20.—While out playing yesterday afternoon Howard Britton, the 16-year-old son of H. B. Britton, three miles west of Owenton, accidentally shot and killed his brother Elmer, aged 18. He did not know the gun was loaded.
